Class History

School hadn't started because of a polio epidemic in Kosciusko County, and the first graders for the year of 1940 were getting anxious. Then on September 20th came the startling news---school would start the next day! We gathered excitedly in our room. This was something we had looked forward to for a long time. In this class, guided by Ruth Rapp, were thirty-five members. We were Donna Cleghorn, Genevieve Dennison, Marcia Disher, Shirley Disher, Betty Droke, Dolores Druckamiller, Gwenlyn Gawthrop, Nancy Godshalk, Pat Hapner, Lucille Babcock, Dina Mench, Nancy Ray, Shirley Reed, Marilyn Ringler, Barbara Searfoss, Darlene Weimer, Retha Wogoman, Eloise Yeager, Wales Cory, Arnold Doll, Robert Firestone, Darold Goon, Karl Hoover, Clifford Kistler, Martin Koher, Thomas Maggart, Merton Pepper, Ralph Rex, Arthur Sawyer, Frank Sawyer, Dean Tribble, Clifford Walton, Richard Ward, Mark Willsey, and Claire Mock. Barbara Lecount joined the class later in the year.

In the second grade, with Ruth Meredith as teacher, we found several members missing. They were Nancy Godshalk, Darold Goon, Thomas Maggart, Arthur Sawyer, Berry Droke, Eloise Yeager, Martin Koher, Ralph Rex, Mark Willsey, and Merton Pepper. The new members were Shirley Webb, Evelyn Lung, Charlotte Smith, Robert Hammer, Delbert Strieby, Theldon Horn, James Todd, Robert Whitmer, and Jim Golbert.

The following year we were third grade angels under Lulu Sneider's wing. The losses were Donna Cleghorn, Evelyn Lung, Barbara LeCount, Shirley Webb, Darlene Weimer, Wales Cory, Theldon Horn, Dean Triblle, Richard Ward, Jim Gilbert, and Karl Hoover. Dolores Druckamiller was gone for half a year and then returned. The additions were Charlotte Nolan, Norma Stabler, Julia Williams, Philip Nine, and Robert Wooten.

In thr fourth grade, struggling along with our first year of geography with Mary Gants as our teacher, we discovered we had lost several students. They were Nancy Ray, James Todd, and Robert Wooten. The new members were Jack DeVault, Bob Dean, Jack Dean, Deloris Frazier, Lawrence Frazier, Allen Wagner, Patsy McKinley, and Ernest Jackson.

The next year in the fifth grade we had Gladys Swartz for our teacher. Those welcomed into the class were Nancy Beamer, Shirley Cripe, Joan Nickels, and Jack Murphy, Donna Cleghorn and Wales Cory returned this year and Ronald Tharp came and left. The class lost Clifford Walton, Jack DeVault, Deloris Frazier, Lawrence Frazier, Allen Wagner, Patsy McKinley and Ernest Jackson.

Mr. Cook, aided by imagination and Zane Grey's stories, led us through the sixth grade. There were more changes. The new students were Sharon Little, Patty Spencer, and we also regained Jack DeVault. Ida Hawks came and left. The ones lost were Delbert Strieby, Robert Whitmer, Bob Dean, Jack Dean and Bob Hammer.

And then came the big step. We were in the seventh grade and actually in the high school building. This brought about another change of students. The ones lost were Joan Nickels, Jack Murphy, and Frank Sawyer. Those gained were Tom Maggart, Rosie Smith, Jim Ritter, Harold Stabler, and David Williams. Carol Layton joined the class and then left before the year was over. Dolores Druckamiller left for awhile, and then returned.

Finally we were "Lords of the Little Study Hall". This year we gained Margie Maraviov, Audrey Hamman, Louis Byland and Jim Miller. Margie Maraviov left during the year. We also lost Jim Ritter, Charlotte Smith, and Retha Wogoman.

Then another large and very important step, was taken. We had completed our elementary grades and were entering high school. This year the new members were Barbara Hart, Connie Hoover, Karen Kuhn, Carole Miller, Myrna Miller, Mable Rarig, Wilfred Miller, Robert Nicolai, Ernest Rogers, Tom Roose, and Leslie Davis. We lost Barbara Searfoss, Thomas Maggart, and Rosie Smith.

As we started our sophomore year Barbara Hart, Myrna Miller, Mabel Rarig, Wilfred Miller, Jack DeVault, Claire Mock, Shirley Reed, and Marilyn Ringler were missing from our ranks. Joel Bates and Emory Stiffler joined us and Dina Mench returned after spending a year at a girls prep school in Ohio.

Then came the busy year. We were juniors! We had the excitement of selling at the basketball games, the class rings, the Junior Class Play, and the Junior-Senior Reception. We gained Dale Plummer and Roger Noe. Our losses were Karen Kuhn, Leslie Davis, Gwenlyn Gawthrop, Sharon Little, Genevieve Dennison, and David Williams. Jim Miller left us after a few days of the first term. Marie Stiver moved to Florida.

At last we walked the last mile. Of the original thirty-five members of the class of '52, there are only seven who have gone to school together all twelve years! They are Lucille Babcock, Marcia Disher, Shirley Disher, Pat Hapner, Arnold Doll, Robert Firestone, and Clifford Kistler. The remaining 18 who have joined the class are Nancy Beamer, Donna Cleghorn, Dolores Druckamiller, Audrey Hamman, Charlotte Nolan, Norma Stabler, Julia Williams, Dina Mench, Joel Bates, and Lluis Byland, Roger Noe, Philip Nine, Robert Nicolai, Dale Plummer, Emory Stiffler, Ernest Rogers, and Tom Roose. In all twelve years there were 90 members in our class.

Thus we, the Graduating Class of '52, end our twelve years of schooling with twenty-five members.

Class Prophecy

We, the Juniors of Syracuse--"High"
Hope you like our verses sly
Here is what we prophesy
For each Senior gal and guy.

LUCILLE BABCOCK
Lucy Babcock starts our story
Everyone thinks she's honky-dory
She likes shorthand and typing too
And is teaching school at 42.

DALE PLUMMER
Plummer's a drummer in a big-name-band
His music's heard throughout the land
He's now recording for R.C.A.
As the current dream-man of our day.

JULIA WILLIAMS
Julia Williams is a preacher
On the pulpit she's a teacher
She's been to China and Japan
Also India and Siam.

ROGER NOE
Roger Noe was a pill
New he's owner of Wayne's Grill
His tamales hit the spot
Even though they're mighty hot.

EMORY STIFFLER
Emory Stiffler has a farm
On it is a big red barn
About farming he knows lots
He took AG from Mr. Stotts.

LOUIS BYLAND
Louie Byland for short we called Lou
He was a little slow as everyone knew
While standing on a railroad track a train came along
We called him Lou for short but not for long.

DOLORES DRUCKAMILLER
Next on the list is Druckamiller
At playing basketball she's a thriller
She's made a profession of this game
Though Marriage was her original aim.

CHARLOTTE NOLAN
Charlotte Nolan's quite a gal
In school she was everyones pal
But she lost her popularity
When she became a celebrity.

ROBERT FIRESTONE
Firestone doesn't have anything to do
Since he invented that good old brew
When they ask, "What's for you?"
Everyone says, "Give me Bobbie's Brew."

CLIFFORD KISTLER
Cliff's a "rebel" who's known to gripe
As he sits a-smoking on his pipe
His beard is so long now they say
That it stretches a yard either way.

NORMA STABLER
Norma Stabler, we could say
In school, was never sick a day
Now she's sea sick as can be
Her boss has water-on-the-knee.

PHILIP NINE
In the future we see Phil Nine
Trying to draw that same straight line
Our brave Phil has never given up hope
Even though the ruler's curved and the pencils broke.

SHIRLEY CRIPE
Shirley Cripe, the Peoples Choice
Through campaigning, lost her voice
Now the greatest President of our day
The only woman with nothing to say.

Prophecy

ERNEST ROGERS
If you are almost ready to burn
Look up that man they call old Ern
For hot, or cold, his ice is nice
And you can get it--for a price.

PATRICIA HAPNER
Now we have a girl named Hapner
Her picture is in before and after
Before--was when she was alive
After--when she learned to drive.

JOEL BATES
Now we come to salesman Bates
For selling bathtubs he really rates
They are plastic and collapsible too
We all use them, how about you?

ROBERT NICALAI
Bobby Nicalai was a wheel
All the girls tho't he was a deal
But when it came to being a lover
He ran straight home to Mother.

MARCIA DISHER
Modeling Marica is a dream
One day she made the customers scream
It wasn't her looks that made them yell
The elastic broke and everything fell.

ARNOLD DOLL
We see this lad as a Cop
Who has worked his way to the top
He started out pounding a beat
Where everyone knew him as just plain Pete.

DINA MENCH
A little girl named Dina Mench
Thought flying was a cinch
She's now on a trip to the moon
And we hope to see her very soon.

TOM ROOSE
We haven't much to say for Tom
He has invented a new type of bomb
This new weapon will save the day
It chases all the bugs away.

NANCY BEAMER
Next is a girl named Nancy Beamer
In politics she's quite a schemer
At staying sober she's tried and true
She's now President of the W.C.T.U.

DONNA CLEGHORN
Here's a gal named Cleghorn
She's bow-legged and saddle worn
She lives in Tucson, Arizoney
And rides a horse whose name is "Bony".

SHIRLEY DISHER
Shirley teaches little brats
How to play their sharps and flats
The latest of her family clan
Is a little, tiny, baby-grand.

AUDREY HAMMAN
Audrey Hamman ends our verse
Riding in her big black hearse
"Digger" Hamman gets around
She'll be the last to let you down.

Jane Bachman
Pat Kitson
Donna McSweeney
John Connolly
Keith Herbison

Class Will

"We the Seniors of the Class of 1952, being of sound mind and solid character do herewith submit our Last Will and Testament. We declare any similarity to the wills of previous years to be purely coincidental and that all Wills submitted are designed around the character and for the benefit of the individual who receives such a rich inheritance.

I, Dale Plummer, will my precious curls to all the phonies with their Tonies. No hard feelings, girls.

I, Philip Nine, will my office of Senior Class President to Jerry Clark.

I, Clifford Kistler, will my ability to be student manager to anyone who can be of more assistance to Mr. Sink.

I, Emory Stiffler, will my Chevie with overload springs to Carl Wilkinson.

I, Donna Cleghorn, will my ability to keep quiet in the study hall to Joan Ringler.

I, Pete Doll, will my ability to get along with the nurses while in the doctors office to Marvin Shock.

I, Lucille Babcock, will my profound love of shorthand to Shirley Sharp. You have my deepest sympathy.

I, Robert Firestone, will my worn out gym shoes to John Morris, so that he can spend more time practicing basketball.

I, Pat Hapner, will my ability to read library books in the study hall without getting caught to John Connolly.

I, Audrey Hamman, will my ability to get into classes with all boys to Sandra Schleeter.

I, Roger Noe, will my ability to drive to Danny O'Haver.

I, Robert Nicolai, will my seat in front of Donna McSweeny to Doug Mock so that he too may never get any studying done in the study hall.

I, Nancy Beamer, will my ability to keep quiet in the study hall to Jenny Morgan.

I, Tom Roose, will my ability to withstand the strain of Coach Sink's officiating at basketball practice to Marvin Shock.

I, Mardia Disher, will my ability to get a boy friend with a Cadillac, or any other car, to any girl who dislikes walking.

I, Louie Byland, will my calm attitude toward girls to Pat Finton.

I, Dina Mench, will my naturally curly hair to Patty Kitson, so she too can have curly hair on damp days.

I, Shirley Cripe, will my messy desk and locker to Sandra Schleeter.

I, Roger Noe, will my ability to sleep in class to Max Hunnicutt.

I, Shirley Disher, will my ability to get out of study hall, on the pretext of practicing music to any girl who doesn't like to study.

I, Robert Nicolai, will all the nicknames I have acquired during the last two years to the "WHEEL" of the Junior Class.

I, Norma Stabler, will my height to Patricia Mellot.

I, Joel Bates, will my patience to the next editor of the annual staff, so that he too may be liberal with the next prophecy committee.

I, Shirley Disher, will my "Pepsi-Bounce" to Donna McSweeny to use as she sees fit.

I, Dolores Druckamiller, will my basketball ability to next year's basketball team.

I, Clifford Kistler, will my ability to get out of the study hall to LeRoy Byrd, so that he won't have to study either.

I, Pete Doll, will my car to Keith Herbison, hoping he likes to walk.

I, Pat Hapner, will my "Golden Locks" to Jane Bachman, so she, too, can have that "Proxy" look.

I, Robert Firestone, will my ability to shave every other day to any Junior boy who can afford to buy the razor blades.

I, Audrey Hamman, will my ability to talk all the time and argue most any point to June Jeffries.

I, Dale Plummer, will my ability to get along with the faculty to anybody who can use it; I never could.

I, Marcia Disher, will my ability to be on time, at least half the time, to Sandra "Bubbles" Schleeter, so that she won't miss her cue for her bubble dancing routine.

I, Louie Byland, Will my preference of blondes to John Morris.

I, Julia Williams, will my ability to get A's in citizenship to Shirley Sharp.

I, Charlotte Nolan, will my excess weight to Joan Ringler.

I, Tom Roose, will my ability to not foul out of a ball game to John "Cowboy" Connolly.

Thus, we the Seniors of the Class of 1952, leave you with the last portions of our high school achievements, which we hope will be put to good use.

Basketball

The 1951-52 Yellow Jackets lacked heighth but made up for it with speed and scrappy, clever ball handling. They started off the season by playing Milford on the home floor. Their first five games proved to be losses. Then they won over Millersburg,63-55. The Yellow Jackets then played the Catholic Seminary, New Paris, North Webster and a second game with Milford, losing 3 out of the 4 by close margins. The Jackets then went on to win a thriller over Claypool in a double overtime. Syracuse proceeded on a three game losing streak before coming up against a much favored South Whitley team and in one of the best games of the year the Yellow Jackets downed South Whitley to add another win to the books.

In the Sectional Tourney Syracuse easily defeated Mentone, 69-41,in the first game. Columbia City followed and downed the Yellow Jackets, the latter going on to the finals. Thus ended the playing season for the 1951-52.team. The Syracuse Varsity loses three players this year: Pete Doll, Joel Bates, and Tom Roose. Season record was 4 wins against seventeen losses.

SIDELIGHTS OF THE YELLOWJACKETS

Arnold "Pete" Doll--Pete's ability to drive and to score mid-way down the floor gave him the position of guard on the first five. Pete was high point man for the Jackets with an average of 12½ points per game. He is five feet-nine inches tall and a Senior. This is his third year on the varsity.

Joel Bates--Although he is only five feet-ten inches tall, he played the position of pivot man for the Yellow Jackets. He showed great ability in rebounding on both the offensive and defensive backboards. Joel is a Senior and this is his second year on the varsity.

Tom Kroh--Tom is six feet tall. His heighth and ability to rebound gave him the position of center for the Gold and Blue. Tom is a Junior and this is his first year with the varsity, he will be a great threat to opponents in the coming season.

John Connolly--John is one of our fast moving guards. He is five feet-nine inches tall and could rebound with the tallest players. John used his ability to shoot both right and left hand shots to his own advantage. He is a Junior and this is first year on the varsity.

Tom Koble--Tom is the smallest and youngest player on the team. He used a two handed set shot from both sides of the floor and from far out. Tom played on the first-five toward the latter part of the season, being sidelined with a back injury during the early season games. He is a Freshman.

Marvin Shock--Marvin had great ability to hit one handed shots from far out. Marvin is five feet-nine inches tall and played guard for the Yellow Jackets. Marvin is a Junior and this is his first year on the varsity. Marvin won the free pitch trophy with an average of 55.3%.

Tom Roose--Tom was always ready for action and could be counted upon for a few points when the going was tough. Tom is six feet tall and played center for the Yellow Jackets. This is his first year on the varsity and he is a Senior.

Philip Worth--Phil played the position of forward for the Jackets. He is five feet-eleven inches tall. He is the only left-handed player on the team, which he used to his own good advantage. Phil is a Sophomore and this is his first year on the varsity.

Philip Meek--Phil was hampered with a leg injury, which he received in the second game with Webster. He was unable to play the rest of the season, but put in many hard fought games previous to his injury. Phil is a Junior and this is his first year on the varsity.

Keith Herbison--Although this was his first year out for the team, he proved himself to be a good rebounder. This ability helped him to move up to the varsity later in the season. Keith is a Junior and this is his first year with the varsity.

Stahly, Charters, Byrd, and Losee--Due to many injuries on the varsity before the County Tournament, these boys moved up to the first team as substitutes. Stahly also was tenth man on the varsity. Byrd is a Junior, Charters and Stahly are Sophomores and Losee is a Freshman. This is the first year on the varsity for all four of these players.

Softball

The Syracuse Yellow Jackets had a split season this year, winning three out of six games. Five of the starting nine experienced their first year playing varsity ball. The Yellow Jackets outscored their opponents in both runs and hits, scoring 31 runs on 38 hits to their opponents 28 runs on 33 hits. The record of the individual players is as follows:

Players	G	Pos.	AB	H	R	Ave.	Yr.
Worth	6	1b	21	9	6	.428	So.
Bates	6	2b	20	7	8	.350	Sr.

Shock	6	cf	16	2	1	.125	Jr.
Doll	6	3b	17	2	5	.107	Sr.
Connolly	2	rf	1	1	0	1.000	Jr.
Lantis	2	cf	1	0	0	.000	Fr.

THE LINEUP

Danny O'Haver was the catcher this year for the Yellow Jackets. Danny's fast peg to second base stopped many players from stealing. Danny is a Junior and this is his first year on the varsity team.

Philip Meek pitched for the team this year. Phil was an exceptionally good batter for being a pitcher. Though this was his first year as pitcher he had a lot of control and a fast curve ball. He is a Junior and this makes his second year on the varsity team.

Joel Bates anchored down the second base. He has held this position for the last three years. Joel had and used his ability toput out players who were trying to steal second base. He has a batting average of .350. Joel is a Senior so this is his last year on the team.

Philip Worth played first base. Phil led the team with a batting average of .428. He is only a Sophomore and this is his second year on the team. Phil was the only left-hander on the team, this he used to his own good advantage.

Tom Koble who is only a Freshman this year held down the short stop position due to his great ability to pick up fast-hit balls. Though he was the smallest player on the varsity team, he has a batting average of .278.

Pete Doll was the fast, capable third baseman for the Yellow Jackets this year. Very few balls gotpast him if he was within range of getting them. This is his Senior year and the last year on the team. He will be a hard man to replace. Pete has played on the varsity team for the past two years.

Keith Herbison played left field because he has great ability to peg the ball to any position within the in-field. Keith is a Junior this year, and he has a batting average of .210.

Marvin Shock, who has a gerat ability to catch long fly-balls, held down the center-field position. Marvin is a Junior and this is his second year on the varsity team.

Wayne Stahly had control of the right-field due to his ability to catch long fly-balls. He is a Sophomore thisyear and this makes hisfirst year on the varsity team.

John Connolly and Jim Lantis both played the out-field and were pinch-hitters when needed. John is a Junior and Jim is a Freshman. This is the first year on the high school varsity team for both.

H U M O R ?

Immel: "Where is Moscow?"
Firestone: "In the barn with Pa's cow."

Tom: "I'm afraid Pete will be in the hospital a long, long time."
Dina: "Goodness, did you see the doctor?"
Tom: "No, I saw the nurse."

Phil: "It says here that they have found petrified remains of prisoners in old Roman prison ruins."
Joel: "Hardened criminals, I suppose."

Frosh: "What's a drizzle?"
Senior: "Two drips going steady."

Miss Hamman: "Name the outstanding accomplishments of the Romans."
Shirley: "They understood Latin."

Mr. Barnhart: "How's your shorthand?"
Student: "Oh, it's growing, Thank you."

Definition of a teacher: One who talks in other people's sleep.

Customer: "I am looking for a book entitled Man, the Master of His Home."
Sales Clerk: "Fiction department is on the other counter, sir."

Clifford: "Do you know the most dangerous part of a car?"
Donna: "The nut behind the wheel."

Garner: "Didn't you go to school, stupid?"
Student: "Sure, and I came out that way."

Emory: "Never have I seen hay grow as short as mine did this summer."
Pete: "You think your hay is short! Why, I had to lather mine to mow it."

Ernie: "Whoever told that guy he was a teacher? He doesn't know a thing about teaching. All he does is get everybody messed up. You can never understand him. I think he ought to quit teaching and go back to the hills."
Marcia: "Yes--I flunked the test too."

Dale: "Do you think I have hidden talent?"
Court: "If you have, it's so well hidden it'll never be found."

Peeved Diner: "You can't expect to eat this stuff! Call the manager!!"
Waiter: It's no use; he won't eat it either!

Kroh: "You say that girl dancing overthere has a cold?"
Connolly: "Yeah."
Kroh: "What's she doing for it?"
Connolly: "Looks like she is trying to shake it off."

Senior: "What would you advise me to read after graduation?"
Teacher: "The want-ads."
